APPLICANTS SHOULD NOTE

1. The amount payable on this Certificate is accurate as at the date of issue and payment should be made on the Certificate as part of the settlement process.
2. Provision of this Certificate does not relieve the land owner of their responsibility to ensure payment of the Land Tax is made by the due date on their Notice of Land Tax Assessment.
3. This Certificate is only valid for the financial year shown.
4. A check should be made to ensure that this Certificate is in respect of the land subject to sale.
5. RevenueSA cannot accept responsibility for apportioning the Land Tax in the circumstance that only a portion of the land is being sold. Land Tax in respect of the whole of the assessment must be paid in full in order to discharge any portion from liability.
6. Notwithstanding payment of the amount payable, the owner as at midnight on 30 June immediately preceding the financial year of this Certificate will remain liable for any additional amount accrued before the date of this Certificate, which may be assessed on the land.
7. If the amount payable is not paid in full on or before the date overleaf, the purchaser will not be released from liability of the whole of the amount of Land Tax outstanding as at the date of settlement.
8. If the change of ownership is to occur in the following financial year, requests for Certificates should be made after 30 June.
9. Persons who are not currently RevNet users are encouraged to consider the benefits of this system, which include the convenience of on-line requests, updates and payment of Certificates. For more information, see www.revnet.sa.gov.au or telephone the RevNet help line on (08) 8207 2333.
