Please review these checklists to ensure the smooth processing of your request.

If this Premium Consulting Services (PCS) job has been accepted by the surveyor, we recommend that the conveyancer preparing the dealing is advised that this job is for PCS as early as possible and are provided a copy of these guidelines.

FOR DEALINGS/INSTRUMENTS:

To help ensure the Premium Consulting Services for your job runs as smoothly as possible, we have prepared a checklist for the submission of Dealings for consulting.

Checklist for Dealings submitted for Premium Consulting Services:

	Dealings are submitted for consulting with a suitable lead time ahead of your intended lodgement date.
	The Dealing draft has been completed as fully as possible.
	Required consents have been obtained and provided, e.g., Council or Mortgagee consents.
	All Dealings that are to be lodged in series are provided for pre-examination. o Including: Scheme Descriptions, Development Contracts, Land Management Agreements, Creation or Variation of Easements (TG/VE). o Note if these other dealings were not advised at the time of quoting, additional Premium Consulting Fee may apply. o By-Laws are provided with all ACT dealings (note: By Laws do not attract an additional PCS fee)
	Ensure SCAP is still current
	Dealing has not already been lodged
Once the examiner	has advised that your job is ready, when lodging your Dealing:

FOR PLANS:

staff.

Please ensure all checklists / survey reports are provided and the Plan is drafted in a registerable format. It must be certified by the Surveyor prior to pre-examination commencement.

Check the Plan has been Approved before lodgement, particularly if the Plan was not also a PCS job.

Advise LSSA staff that the Dealing is PCS - either by way of an attached note or letter, or verbal advice to counter
